Freezer pops for soldiers drive under way

American soldiers serving in the heat of the desert might appreciate a cool treat. And with that in mind, Bumpus Harley Davidson, 2250 N.W. Broad St., Murfreesboro, is opening its doors as an official drop-off point for ready-to-freeze freezer pops and cash donations for shipping and other expenses to anysoldier.com. Deadline for drop-offs is June 30.

The anysoldier.com Web site funnels troops anything from deodorant to letters.

The current goal is to fill at least 100 flat-rate boxes with freezer pops, giving a little cool relief to about 1,800 troops.

Help is also need for packing and labeling.

To read more about donations requested by soldiers, go to anysoldier.com.
